

Shaun MacLoughlin, Drama Director, Writer, Presenter and Teacher

Education and Professional

Educated by Jesuit priests at Beaumont College, Old Windsor, UK.
Master of Arts in Politics, Philosophy and Economics,
University of Oxford.

Second Lieutenant, Royal Artillery.

Tour Guide in France and Spain. (Speaks French and basic Spanish)

BBC TV Drama Script Editor, Single Plays.

BBC Radio 4 Script Editor, The Afternoon Play.

BBC Radio Producer /presenter of Drama, Documentaries, Poetry for Radios 3 & 4 in Bristol.

Winner of the Sony Award for best radio comedy for “Crisp and Even Brightly”.

Producer of 13 one hour radio programmes on the History of Australia to celebrate the Bicentenary in 1988. <https://www.englishthroughdrama.com/wordplay/17-building-documentaries-australia-lucky-country/>

Presenter of a documentary about a cycling pilgrimage with his 12 year old son, Seamus, from Mont St Michel to Santiago de Compostela.

<https://www.englishthroughdrama.com/wordplay/16-building-a-documentary-1-do-it-yourself-a-personal-odyssey/>

Tutor and producer of radio acting at the Bristol Old Vic Theatre School and the Birmingham School of Acting, producing Shakespeare for local radio.

Director of “The Healing Arts” with leading Vietnamese actors at the Small Stage Theatre Company, Vo Van Street, Ho Chi Minh City.

Tutor in writing drama scripts at Bath Spa University and the University of Wales.

Tutor in screenplay writing at Bristol University.

Director of four plays by Oscar Wilde for Penguin Audio.

Radio Drama Producer in HM Prisons Channings Wood and Rye Hill.

Winner of the Arthur Koestler Award for creative work in prisons for the radio documentary “A Journey through Drugs”.

Producer of “The Flower Room” for BBC Radio 4, recorded on location in China.

Author of “Writing and Acting for Radio”, recommended on University courses.

Producer of audio plays for primary and secondary school special needs children.

Personal

3 children and 4 grandchildren in the UK.

Loves travel, trekking (in the Andes and Nepal), swimming, cycling and the company of friends.

Twice daily meditation.

Websites: <https://www.englishthroughdrama.com/> and <http://www.englishwordplay.com/> and currently developing <https://www.learnnetd.com/>

iPhone: +66 (0)924720670